

I don't understand why there would be a problem here, but XM radio is my husband's choice, and why receiving weather and traffic info would be the business of anyone else is beyond me. If I choose to pay for the info, that is my choice.